The Really Important Bit

This is a MapRun event, you will need to download the MapRun App to your phone and upload the course you need before you leave home.

Go to the Google Play Store or App Store.

Do NOT press 'Go to start' yet.

There will be folk at registration to help with the App, if this is your first time using it.

There are no control flags on control sites but your phone should beep when you are there.

For further information on using the MapRun App, check out the EPOC website.
